Baseball Personalities.
It was in the year 1807 that there we actional baseball tournament in this A number of clubs were crierch, at them the Nationals of Washington, the resistors of Chicago and the Pecatonic Pecatonics, Ill. The latter club was year increased in the resistors of the property of the personal person celebors of Chicage and the Pecatonicas of Pecatonica, Ill. The latter club was young and inexperienced, but ambittour, so they entered the contest. The Excelebors were considered the boss club of America, and the Nationals disputed the claim. A beautiful set of trophics were given as prizes, and the Pecatonicas added a cow in form, allow mounted, to be given the club making the poorest showing of the courament, expecting to get it themselves. The Nationals won the championship and the Pecatonica won the championship and the Pecatonica who make the worst showing of the entire lot of clubs hora was given to the Excelsiors, who made the worst showing of the entire lot of clubs and the short was given to the Excelsiors of some thing like that. For years the "Icabanda horo" was the standing jolic in baseball circles. The Excelsiors were reorganized at once, and it was from that start that professional baseball had its inception. Good players were in demand, and within a few years an association of professional clubs was formed in large cities. The Chicage on Tuesday won that Peatonica horn a second time, and they should be dubbed the Pecatonica likes hence forth—[Chicago Inter-Ocean.]

FIRED BY A LUNATIC.

A Conflagration Started by a Crasy Man.

Special Officer Meyers was standing at the corner of Seventh street and Maryland avenue at 2 o'clock yesterday morning, when he noticed a light in the stable of Niron liewer. He ran to the stable, which was close by, and saw Mercer Garner, colored, coming out. He immediately put the negro under arrest and then turned in an alarm of life from box 442. Mr. Brewer's flour and feed establishment is at 200 Seventh street southwest, and the flames soon communicated to the hay-house and the main store. A special and a general alarm were sent cated to the bay-house and the main store.

A special and a general alarm were sent out in quick succession. At one time it looked as if the block would go up. Six horses were burned in the stable of Mr. Brewer and a horse and oow belonging to Dr. Soctomieks were also burned. The same extended to the wood and col yard of W. H. Baum, and the stores of H. Baum flurtung & Co. and Rines's printing office. Mr. Brewer's loss is placed at $7,000, and flurtung & Co. and Rines's printing office. Mr. Brewer's loss is placed at $7,000, Mr. Hortung's loss is placed at $7,000, and reserved to the catenote of $100 in heart and the store of the stable of $100 in heart and the stable of $100 in heart ance. Garner is supposed to be insane. He was employed by Mr. Brewer as a driver.

The case of Garner came up before the Police Court to-day. He was charged with steon. He was each down to be examined as to bis sanity.

At the Camp Meetings.

At the last meeting of the directors of the Washington Grove Association it was decided not to silow the trains to stop there on Sunday. Although this decision was widely published at the time and made generally known, yet there were some who took the train for the grove-yesterlay who were ignorant of the new regulation. Mr. Zimmerman, the evangellat, conducted the 11 o'clock service, and Rev. Dr. Laney held a children's meeting in the afternoon. Praise meetings and young people's meetings were also held. The day was a quiet and restful one for the cottagers.

At the Union Camp of the M. F. Churches (colored) of Baltimore, Washington and Annapolls yesterday over 5.000 people were present. Rev. W. P. Hyder, prestiling eiter of the Washington district. Rev. E. Hammond of the Central Church of this city, and Rev. J. L. Thomas of Bladens-burg, presched.
